committee.

The reservation attached by the committee to the four power pact embodies the compromise suggested after conferences with Fresident Harding, and declared that nothing in the treaty shall be construed as forming an "alliance." It was approved by a ten to three vote.

Also by a division of ten to three,
with Senators, Borah, Idaho Johnson, California, Republicans and Saleds, Democrat, Tennessee voting in the megative the four power treaty the

The vote by which the naval limitation and submarine treaties were favorably reported was not given.

Several other votes were taken on proposed substitutes to the compromise reservation but the administration leaders brought about the defeat of ali of them and the reservationists abandoned and all attempts to qualify further the four power and other treaties in committee. They said their action simply meant, however, that they were ready to transfer their fight to the open senate.

As it will be embedled in the report of the four power-treaty, the compromise reservation approved by the committee out the words "no alliance" was

A motion by Senator Pomerene to strike out the words "no alliance" was defeated ten to three, only senators Kellogs, Republican, Minnesota and willsms, Democrat, Mississippi, joining the Ohio senator in its support.

Semator Pomerene then moved an entire substitute for the reservation but was voted down 12 to 1.

The original Brandegee blanket rescervation, for which a majority of the committee are said to have indicated their support before the conference, those ramshackle, broken-down taxicabs which every American visitor to Paris has had to dodge on the Paris boulevards, have been permanently retired and replaced by 3,200 modern comfortable taxicabs.

The forbidding appearance of the old "cruisers" seemed to have an ill effect on the drivers, and hope is expressed by many Parisians that the new machines would also mark the passing of the disreputable chauffeurs who are considered as ill-mannered as their machines are old.

The taxicabs were placed in service in 1905. In 1914, they were mobilized by General Gallieni, then military governor of Paris, who crowded his army into them and rushed them to the battle of the Marne, where they aided in the success of the famous fianking movement that saved Paris finnking movement that saved Paris and defeated the Germans.
